“There Ought To Be A Law”

2023 Essay Contest - Guidelines & Rules

The Stark County Bar Association and the Canton Area League of Women Voters are teaming up to sponsor the annual Law Day Essay Contest project. Focusing on how laws are developed, the project asks 7th through 12th grade students to write about what they believe “There Ought to be a Law”. Each student is asked to generate an idea for a new law and provide reasons why that particular law should be enacted, taking into account its impact on the community.

Guidelines:

Each student who wishes to participate must write an essay of 1,000 words or less proposing a new rule or law to be enacted in Ohio at the school, community, county, or state level. Proposed, pending, or current legislation may be used for topic ideas, but the student-generated laws should be original. Because this contest is designed to foster creative thinking, each essayist is asked to adhere to the following guidelines:

- Propose an original law that to the student’s knowledge is not currently in effect in Ohio.
- Use for topic ideas, but do not copy, any proposed or pending legislation.
- Fully explain the proposed law by:
 - clarifying what the law would create or change;
 - exploring the benefits and consequences of the proposed law;
 - anticipating the proposed law’s impact on existing rules or laws as well as the law’s impact on those who would be affected;
 - explaining why the law needs to be created and how it would be enforced;
 - telling when and where the law would be effective.

To locate information about the lawmaking process as well as a complete listing of past, current and pending legislation, students are invited to use links through the OSBA web site at <http://www.ohiobar.org>.

Rules:

All essays should be typewritten in a 12-point font and include:

- The student's name, address, phone number, age, and grade level;
- Completed parental release form (if under 18 years of age);
