From Our President

The celebration of the Stark County Bar Association's 125th Anniversary continues! The Art Exhibit at Cyrus Art Gallery on September 13, 2025 was truly an extraordinary event that was attended by many! Thank you to everyone who came out to enjoy a delightful evening supporting our local attorneys who displayed their talent through music, dance, painting, photography, writing, sculpture and so much more! Next up is our production of "Twelve Angry Women" at the McKinley Memorial Museum Auditorium. On Friday, November 7th at 6:00 p.m. there will be a pre-show, private reception with light refreshments, with curtain at 7:30 p.m. Tickets for the reception and show will be available through the Bar Association in advance at $50.00 per ticket. A second show will take place on Saturday night, with the doors opening at 6:30 p.m. and curtain at 7:00 p.m. with a $25.00 admission.

The Stark County Bar Association premiered our pro bono, legal outreach production of "Twelve Angry Men" for Law Week in 2009, sixteen years ago, at the Kathleen Howland Theatre in the 2nd April Galerie. Our Past President, Joe Martuccio got the idea for that production during a late-night viewing of the movie version on television. The production was set in the 1950s and was performed over a nine-year period in Canton, Minerva, Alliance, Massillon and Valley City, Ohio. The original players included 12 men and one woman from various areas of practice and the production was offered as a "gift to the community - an enlightening, entertaining and enduring constitutional 'lesson' on the Bill of Rights."

For the production of "12 Angry Women", a similarly diverse cast has been assembled, and it will be interesting for those of us who had the privilege of seeing the original production being able to watch our lady lawyers perform the same roles. A side-by-side listing of the original cast and the current cast and their "real" legal roles follows:

(Judge Bob Lavery filled the role of #8 after Frank Motz moved to Florida).

Twelve Angry Women

Hon. Taryn Heath

Leading up to the performance, please join in the “Twelve Angry Women” Webinar which is being offered for one hour of CLE on October 16, 2025.

Also on October 16, 2025, Community Legal Aid will be hosting “Bar-ista for Pro Bono” at the Stark County Bar Association Office offering a coffee bar with pastries to thank attorneys who have delivered pro bono services through their agency. Please come out to participate in this event.

October is Pro Bono Awareness Month! One of the tenets of the SCBA’s Mission Statement is to work for the general good of the community, to improve the administration of the law in the interests of the public, which includes providing access to justice for those who cannot afford the cost of legal representation. We should all be proud to be affiliated with an organization that is dedicated to ensuring that our community is provided with means to ensure that their legal rights are protected and zealously pursued by quality attorneys.

Many opportunities exist in our community to volunteer on a pro bono basis. Moving from private practice to the Family Court bench, I have become increasingly aware of the needs of people who find themselves in court by choice or by fate. Pro se litigants with limited income can easily access forms with basic instructions online for all our Stark County Courts and in most jurisdictions across the State of Ohio. If additional help is needed, many jurisdictions offer help desks staffed by law students, paralegals and attorneys to guide litigants. In Stark County, Community Legal Aid provides an assortment of assistance to individuals who qualify, including legal clinics, pro bono and low-cost attorney fee services to clients. The Stark Family Court has established a Help Desk that aids any pro se litigant who appears during the time the Help Desk is open. The desk is staffed by experienced Family Law attorneys who work for a set reduced hourly rate on a limited scope basis, providing help at no charge to the public on a first-come, first-served basis. New attorney participants are always welcome for this highly sought after service. On Saturday, November 1, 2025 the Stark County Bar Association Pro Bono Committee will be joining with Krugliak, Wilkins, Griffiths & Dougherty, Co., L.P.A. to host a Driver’s License Reinstatement Clinic from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church at 425 Cleveland Ave. SW, Canton, Ohio 44702. This service can be life-changing to those in need. Please consider making pro bono service a part of your practice!

Finally, we have had some really beautiful fall weather over the last few weeks. I am hoping this trend will continue for our Quarterly Bar Review at Sleepy Hollow Golf Course in Alliance on October 13, 2025 starting at 1:00 p.m. Please scan the QR Code in the journal to sign up for our 9 Hole Golf Scramble and social hour!

A Stark County Bar Association – Social Event
In conjunction with the Stark County Bar Association’s 125th Celebration

“Twelve Angry Women” is a classic courtroom drama first broadcast on CBS TV in 1954, followed by the Academy Award nominated film in 1957 starring Henry Fonda. Reginald Rose authored the screenplay, later adopted by Sherman L. Sergel and produced by The Dramatic Publishing Co.

This compelling dissection of heated jury deliberations will be proudly presented at The McKinley Memorial Museum Auditorium at 800 McKinley Monument Drive, N.W., Canton on Friday, November 7th and Saturday, November 8th. The Bar Association has reserved the entire 100 seat theatre on Friday, November 7th for members, families and guests. A pre-show, private reception with light refreshments will commence at 6:00 p.m., with curtain at 7:30 p.m. Tickets for the reception and show will be available through the Bar Association in advance at $50.00 per ticket. Please call the Bar Association at 330-453-0685 or e-mail SCB@StarkCtyBar.com to make reservations, first come, first served. The Saturday night show doors will open at 6:30 p.m., with curtain at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $25.00 per person and may be purchased through the Bar Association.

The cast will feature 13 local female attorneys, including prosecutors, public defenders, a judge, magistrates, and SCBA current and past presidents. It will include actors Melissa Day, Judge Taryn Heath, Emily Durway, Tiffany Poirer, Magistrate Beverly Proctor-Donald, Angela Vagotis, Rosemary Rubin, Magistrate Christy Pierson, Jennifer Dave, Karen McQueen, Melanie John, Joy Wagner, and Charlie McConnell. Joe Martuccio will be directing, assisted by Melissa Day.
