The Bar Journal is published monthly for all bar members. Free to members, $20.00 per year to others.

All communications and editorial material should be directed to the Bar Association office by the fifteenth day of the month preceding publication.

Opinions and positions expressed in the signed material are those of the author and may not necessarily reflect those of the Stark County Bar Association, its officers, staff or board of editors.

From Our President

Kudos to the cast of 14 ladies -which included judges, magistrates, lawyers and a judge's administrative assistant - along with Director and Past President Joe Martuccio and Assistant Director Melissa Day! Everyone put in long hours of challenging yet fun and rewarding rehearsals to make the 2 sold out shows of 12 Angry Women a great success and entertaining, yet thought provoking, evening for all! Plus, we raised significant funds from proceeds from ticket sales for our scholarship fund! Both shows were met with standing ovations and lots of talk of an encore performance. Thank you to Paula George, Immediate Past President Angela Vagotis and the 125th Anniversary Celebration Committee for putting together an impressive reception with delicious heavy hors d'oeuvres that added to the festive atmosphere on opening night. This event was an excellent finale for a yearlong celebration of our 125th year! A very special thank you to our committee members and sponsors that made all of the events throughout the year possible: Baker, Dublikar; Buckingham Doolittle & Burroughs, LLC; Krugliak, Wilkins, Griffiths & Dougherty Co., LPA; Wayne Kyhos, Esq.; Milligan Pusateri; Mills, Mills, Fiely & Lucas; Thomas P. Moushey, Esq.; and Schulman, Roth & Associates Co., LPA.

After opening night, this glowing statement was submitted directly to Joe Martuccio: "Did you see the NYT review by the theater critic?" "The small Midwestern city Canton, Ohio presented a wonderful play, Twelve Angry Women, to an appreciative audience this weekend. A talented group of female attorneys and judges, directed by seasoned director Joe Martuccio, highlighted the continuing societal challenges of racial and ethnic prejudices. The Players struck the proper emotional responses to a challenging criminal case. The objective observer would have been hard pressed to distinguish these amateurs from seasoned professional actors." Thank you, Professor J. Dean Carro, for your profound and complementary remarks-of course, there was no actual NYT review!

Magistrate Beverly Proctor-Donald
President, Stark County Bar Association

One topic frequently discussed by the audience of lawyers, colleagues and family members at the theater located within the McKinley Presidential Library and Museum was the continued relevance of the subject matter in the play and the concept that the more things change the more they same the same. Clearly – and fortunately for many, me included – there have been enormous advancements in society since 1900 when our Stark County Bar Association was established with the signatures of the original 99 members. During that era Stark County was a center for progress with industry booming and Canton native William McKinley being elected to serve his second term on November 6, 1900. Unfortunately, our Stark County history includes the tragic assassination of President McKinley in September of 1901.

It is remarkable to me that on April 14, 1865, only 35 short years before this Bar Association was formed, President Abraham Lincoln, one of the foremost proponents of the 13th amendment to the U.S. Constitution, was assassinated. Vice President Andrew Johnson succeeded to the presidency and eventually managed to complete the ratification of the Thirteenth Amendment on December 18, 1865, thereby abolishing slavery in this nation. In 1870, only 30 years before our Bar Association started, the 15th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, was ratified, prohibiting states from denying a citizen the right to vote based on "race, color, or previous condition of servitude". Although an abundance of history surrounds the years following this landmark civil rights achievement, I only mention it here as a reminder of the temporal proximity of these pivotal events in our nation to the formation of our association.

Our noble profession is built upon ensuring justice for all under the laws created by and for humankind and I would like to believe that our founding members envisioned the future of our bar association becoming the progressive and diverse association of over 650 members that exists today, continuing to uphold their original mission with strong leadership, including an actual black woman as its President. Despite the persistence of human nature and also because of it, we have come a long way for sure and yet we have a long way to go!

Our active members make our association successful. Thank you to the Military and Veterans Affairs Committee and the Community Involvement Committee and to everyone who donated to the SAM CENTER as part of our 2025 Thanksgiving Basket Drive. The Community Involvement Committee is currently offering an Adopt-A-Family through Community Christmas - be sure to stop into the Bar office as soon as possible - the deadline is December 5th. Speaking of deadlines - if this is your year to renew your registration, consider supporting our Bar Association by taking advantage of the live courses offered by SCBA or the online courses offered 24/7.

I hope to see you all at the Holiday Party on December 5th for a delightful evening! 125 years strong!

A Community Christmas

ADOPT-A-FAMILY

The Community Involvement Committee is adopting a family of 4 people this Christmas. Tags are now available for members to swing by the Bar office to pick up. The gifts should be wrapped and have the tag on them when returned. There is also an option to purchase a gift card to Walmart for groceries. Of course, you may do both. All gifts should be returned to the Bar Office by December 5th for delivery to Community Christmas.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated in making a Christmas merrier for this family in Stark County.

Thank You!
